In The Supreme Court of The Territory of Arizona

John A. Rush and
Alonzo E. Davis
Respondents

Versus

William A. Lyon and
Washington French
Appellants

At a general term of the Supreme Court begun and held at Tucson, on the 2d Monday of January A.D. 1875.

On Appeal from a Judgment in the Third Judicial District County of Yavapai and Territory of Arizona wherein said Rush and Davis were plaintiffs and said Lyon and French were defendants.

The Appeal from the Judgment entered in this cause on the 21st day of June A.D. 1874 — that said respondents recover of said appellants the Fair North Extension of the Tiger mine, containing Two hundred feet in the Tiger Mining District County of Yavapai and Territory of Arizona and the possession thereof — as described in plaintiffs Complaint — together with their costs taxed at Seven hundred and ninety seven $ 00/100 dollars and from the order of the Court refusing a new trial, having been heard at this term of the Court. It is now on Motion D. P. Hargrave and Coles Bashford, of Counsel for appellants, after hearing James E. McCaffry and Jno. A. Rush of Counsel for respondents. Adjudged That the said Judgment be reversed, and the order refusing a new trial be vacated, and a new trial ordered, costs to abide the event.
